Latest Updates

Hello from Miles Christi! We hope you had a wonderful Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary this past Saturday. We pray that Mary is our sweetness, our life, and our hope!

Quick update from our order in Michigan: the postulants are coming in and getting ready for classes that start in three weeks. Our order in California led a wonderful spiritual exercise retreat last weekend!

Saintly Holiness IS Possible! We live in a day and age where people strive to be sinners more than they strive to be saints; a time when one may be tempted to wonder if saintly holiness still exists...

Well, we're here to tell you it IS possible and that starting later this month, we will be posting 3 blog posts per month about saints whose feast days we celebrate! Each blog will feature info about the respective saint, while providing more practical tips to help and encourage each of us to live holy, saintly lives!

Together, let us journey with our beloved saints to grow closer together in holiness... because it IS possible! You can read our first article on Saint Maximilian Kolbe here.

Upcoming Events

- August 22: Young Men's Outdoor Evening of Fraternity, South Lyon, MI
- September 9: Morning of Recollection for Women, South Lyon, MI
- September 18-20: Spiritual Exercises Retreat for Women, Glencoe, MO
- September 25-27: Spiritual Exercises Retreat for Women, Rancho Palos Verdes, CA

The "Throwback Corner" is where we will be including previously written pieces, videos, podcasts, etc. on culturally relevant topics for discussion. In light of the Feast of the Queenship of Mary coming up on August 22nd, we want to encourage you take a moment to read our article on why you should accustom yourself to praying the Angelus. Saintly Inspiration

Saintly holiness IS possible! Together, let us seek holiness with the saints as our inspiration.

“Let us remember that love lives through sacrifice and is nourished by giving. Without sacrifice, there is no love.”

St. Maximilian Kolbe
