Latest Updates

Hello from Miles Christi!

On August 20, Memorial of St. Bernard, our newest postulant, Andrew St. Germain, joined our community of formation at St. Joseph House, in South Lyon, MI.

Andrew is from Colorado and graduated from the University of Denver with a major in mechanical engineering. After graduation, he served for two years as a missionary with FOCUS (The Fellowship of Catholic University Students) at Eastern Michigan University.

Let us give thanks to God for this new member of our community and pray for his perseverance and sanctification as he begins his life of total consecration to Christ and His Church.

Saintly Holiness IS Possible! We're bringing to you 2 blog posts per month about saints whose feast days we celebrate! Each blog will feature information about the respective saint, while providing more practical tips to help and encourage each of us to live holy, saintly lives! Together, let us journey with our beloved saints to grow closer together in holiness... because it IS possible!

In the month of August, we discussed St. Maximilian Kolbe, St. Monica, and St. Augustine.

On September 8th, we will start our video series as we reflect upon the 7 sorrows of Our Lady leading up to the Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows. Keep an eye out for these videos on our social media accounts!

The "Throwback Corner" is where we will be including previously written pieces, videos, podcasts, etc. on culturally relevant topics for discussion.

In light of Our Lady of Sorrows feast day approaching on September 15, we encourage you to read our article on Mater Dolorosa, the cause of our joy. Click the link below!

In honor of Saint Augustine's Feast Day, we want to remind you that even in the darkest of times and deepest of wounds, God's glory can be found! Especially during these unpredictable times, take refuge in this Psalm 46:1, "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble."
