1. The Wisdom of Our Catholic Faith explores the infallibility of the Catholic Church through Tradition and Holy Scripture, as well as the four marks of the true Church, the divinity and humanity of Christ, the Sacrifice of the Mass and the Real Presence, and the dignity of the Priesthood.

Presented by Dr. Lawrence Feingold

2. The Catholic Church: Beacon of Truth addresses the nature and history of Liberalism, Modernism, and Progressivism, focusing on the Modernist notion of faith, revelation, and dogma; as well as measures against Modernism with Pope Pius XII and his encyclical Humani Generis, a condemnation of "New Theology" and the defense of Thomism. Presented by Dr. Lawrence Feingold

3. The Catholic Understanding of Sacred Scripture

will help you understand the unbreakable relationship between Sacred Tradition and Holy Scripture, while guiding you through key concepts of interpretation of Holy Scripture. This includes an examination of typology and the symbols of the Church in Old Testament prophesies. Presented by Dr. Lawrence Feingold

4. Culture Lite: The De-Christianization of Western

Society explains the phenomenon of contemporary "lite" culture and its impact on modern man. It discusses its causes and describes some cultural manifestations of the loss of transcendence. It also expounds on the importance of sacred art and its value. Presented by Dr. Lawrence Feingold

5. The Passion of Christ: In the Light of Faith,

Passion of Christ History, and Science examines the theological meaning of Christ's suffering, the necessity of the Passion, the historical validity of the Gospel accounts, Christ's interior suffering, and the medical aspects. Presented by Dr. Lawrence Feingold

6. Apologetics: Giving Reasons for Your Faith examines

what "apologetics" is and why your Faith needs to be defended. It will explore the objective truth about religion, proof on the existence and nature of God, the necessity for religion, and other elements of Catholicism to better equip you in defending the Faith. Presented by Dr. Lawrence Feingold

7. The Holy Eucharist: Heaven Upon Earth

explains what the Eucharist is, reasons for its institution by Christ, the nature of this Sacrifice, the Priesthood, and the Liturgy. The conference also explores certain historical Eucharistic miracles and its power to enlighten our minds and transform our hearts.

8. The Catholic Vision of History addresses the triumphs and struggles of Christianity throughout history. Topics include the Christ-centered view of history, the growing and indestructable Church, the Middle Ages, and the great intellectual and artistic achievements of Christendom. Presented by Dr. Warren Carroll, Mrs. Anne Carroll, and Dr. Lawrence Feingold

9. Learn the Truth, Defend the Faith is valuable for forming a solid Catholic response to Dan Brown's The Da Vinci Code. It exposes the many damaging falsehoods and misconceptions in the story, as well as its relation to Gnosticism, neo-paganism, Wicca, and Radical Feminism. Presented by Dr. Lawrence Feingold

10. Apologetics: Giving Reasons for Your Faith about Jesus

and Mary encompasses a broad array of topics on Jesus and His Mother Mary, including: the true humanity and divinity of Christ, the credibility of the Resurrection, the dogmatic truths about Mary as Mother of God, her Immaculate Conception, her perpetual virginity, and the historical heresies against these truths. Presented by Dr. Robert Fastiggi & Dr. Lawrence Feingold

11. The Dictatorship of Relativism and the Protestant Reformation, a term coined by Pope Benedict

XVI, refers to the growth of Relativism and modern loss of confidence in the Church and reason itself. The conference also examines: Martin Luther's role in the Reformation, great saints of the Counter-Reformation, and the necessity of the Catholic Church for salvation. Presented by Dr. Lawrence Feingold

12. Apologetics: The True Church of Jesus Christ

- One or Many? answers common questions of the nature of the Church and her members: why Christ founded the Church, how it is distinguished from other churches, the Protestant understanding of the Church, the role of Peter's successor, and the marks of the Church. Presented by Dr. Lawrence Feingold

13. True Hope and Its Counterfeits: The Importance of Hope for the Christian Life explores the nature of Christian hope and its contraries: despair and presumption. Topics also include: eternal life, hope in the Resurrection, and salvation of those outside the visible Church. It also covers Marxism, Islam, Atheism, and the paralysis of hope in our secular society. Presented by Dr. Lawrence Feingold

14. The Beginnings of the Catholic Church in America examines the origins of our Faith in America. It discusses the evangelization of the New World, our Lady of Guadalupe, St. Junipero Serra and Western evangelization, the North American Martyrs, Fr. De Smet and the Rocky Mountains Indians, and modern challenges of the Faith in America. Presented by Dr. Lawrence Feingold & Dr. Robert Fastiggi

15. St. Paul: A Convert from Judaism Who Set the World

Afire for Christ presents the life and conversion of St. Paul, his teachings on Christ, justification, moral principles, the Sacraments, and the Second coming of Christ. It also examines the Resurrection of Christ and our own, as a central element of our Faith.

Presented by Dr. Lawrence Feingold

16. Heroes of Our Faith: The Priesthood and Saintly

Priests addresses the Catholic teaching on Christ as the Eternal

High Priest, and the Sacrament of Holy Orders as a participation in Christ's Priesthood. It explains why the priesthood is reserved for men, the priestly vocation, and the lives of some exemplary priests: St. Augustine, the Curé of Ars, St. Pius X, and St. Claude de la Colombière. Presented by Dr. Lawrence Feingold

17. Unmasking the Enemies of the Church

"Any stick is good enough to beat Christianity with" - G.K. Chesterton
