Latest Updates

These past two weekends we held our two boys' summer camping trips. For our high school camp, we went up to Cedar, MI, where we explored dunes, went tubing and paintballing, and played sports on the beach. On our other boys' camp, ages 12-14, we went to the Michindoh Conference Center in Hillsdale, MI. Boys participated valiantly in sports competitions, acted out the lives of their favorite saints, and enjoyed time on the waterfront. In both camps, there was truly a unique environment in which good friends could share and grow in their faith together.

The "Throwback Corner" is where we will be including previously written pieces, videos, podcasts, etc. on culturally relevant topics for discussion.

Wearing The Scapular of Mt. Carmel is a means to salvation. The origins of this pious practice go back to the year 1251, when the Blessed Virgin appeared to St. Simon Stock and, extending her hand to him, said: "Receive, my beloved son, this habit: whosoever dies clothed in this shall not suffer eternal fire [Hell]." We must make an effort to benefit from the innumerable and excellent means that our Blessed Mother is ceaselessly multiplying to bring us to Heaven!

Saintly Inspiration

Saintly holiness IS possible! Together, let us seek holiness with the saints as our inspiration.

Friday, July 16, was the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. First instituted in the 14th century, The feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel became part of the universal Church calendar in the early 18th century.

Read our latest blog post to gain a better understanding of Our Lady of Mount Carmel and her presentation of the Brown Scapular.
