Latest Updates

June 27 through July 2, another Miles Christi Young Men's Summer Camp took place at Zephyr Point on the shores of Lake Tahoe, Nevada. With the help of a team of chaperones and college students, Fr. Martin Latiff, MC and Fr. Paul de Soza, MC, led a group of 40 boys, ages 14-18, in recreational activities such as hikes, sports and games, as well as in celebration of the Holy Mass, spiritual talks, Adoration and the opportunity for confession and prayer.

The Young Men's Summer camp was a great time for campers to grow closer in their relationship to Christ as well as participate in camaraderie and fellowship with each other. Many of the boys had attended Miles Christi retreats or Summer camp in previous years and were happy to participate again and felt blessed for another opportunity to grow spiritually through their Catholic faith.

Please pray for these young men and all the youth participating in summer faith opportunities with Miles Christi, that they will continue to grow ever more faithful in their relationship with Our Lord.

The "Throwback Corner" is where we will be including previously written pieces, videos, podcasts, etc. on culturally relevant topics for discussion.

The practice of spiritual reading should be part of one's daily plan of life. It is a laudable custom always to have a book of Catholic spirituality at hand, which can be read from time to time as one's occupation permits. St. Ignatius's own biography shows its tremendous importance for the spiritual life. To read more about the importance of daily spiritual reading, click on the article below.
